I attended the National Alliance of Commercial Loan Brokers (NACLB) conference last week in Miami and it was an incredible experience! I met a lot of influential leaders in the industry. I would recommend to anyone in commercial lending! Thank you Kris and the team for a valuable experience.

Supporting growing businesses with tailored working capital solutions | Growth Lending

October 14, 2011, Keith worked with Kris but they were at different companies

Kris is a great friend to have in the commercial finance world. He and his team of professionals have the expertise to source all types of financing and match transactions with the right lender. One of our largest and most active new clients this year came from Kris and his team. And our involvement with Kris and his Commercial Capital Training Program has resulted in numerous leads for our company.
